

ESCC December News!

Dear Mom and Dad,

This month we will be busy sharing and learning the many holiday traditions that our families will be celebrating this holiday season.

Happy December Birthday's

All our children will be having a Christmas Party (Maybe Santa will find time to visit!). Ms. Erica's T-Th children, Ms. Mary Jo's T-Th children and Ms. Amy & Ms. Cindy's T-Th children will celebrate on Thursday, December 20th. All other children will have their party on Friday, December 21st. You will be receiving more details from your child's teacher. Party refreshment lists will be posted in each classroom.

Some classes will be having holiday presentations:

Ms. Carol's/ Ms. Clare's class & Ms. Erica's M-W-F 3 yr old class - 9:30 AM on Wednesday, December 20th.

Ms. Landra's Kindergarten – 9:30 AM on Tuesday, December 18th.

Ms. Fran's Kindergarten – 1:15 PM on Tuesday, December 18th.

You will be receiving a special invitation closer to the date.

A Reminder: The four-year-old preschool classes are organizing a food drive from November 26th – December 5th. You may drop off any donations in your child's classroom.

FYI: It has been brought to our attention that parents are concerned with the speed with which cars are entering and exiting our parking lot. We understand that you may be running late; but our "precious little ones" may be hard to see moving about in the parking lot coming and going. We know that no one would intentionally hurt a child and that we would all be devastated if a child were hurt.... So "Please" go slower than 5 miles per hour in our parking lot.

Congratulations to Ms. Lisa's Kindergarten class for doing an awesome Thanksgiving Presentation.

FROM MS. MARY IN THE LIBRARY:

Why not start a special reading tradition this coming season? You and your child can make an event shopping for a holiday book and sharing it during bedtime. Then each year as you pull the same book down from the shelf, you help to create a family tradition as you celebrate the season. Just think, one year when your child can read the story to YOU, can you imagine how even more eventful your holidays will be?

“ESCC Happenings”

A “BIG” Thank you for volunteering for our Decorating Committee: Carolyn Maille and Cammie Ward.

Congratulations to a member of our Afternoon Staff, Miss Kelly of Elmo’s Farmstand (Rm. E) who has been accepted into Alvirne High School’s Academy of Finance.

We had a wonderful response to our reminder to ESCC families to bring in boxtops. We have now collected over 650 since mid-October. Great work! Continue to turn in any you might find on the participating products.

REMINDER: The center will be closed Monday, December 24th through Tuesday, January 1st. No tuition is due for the week of December 24th – 28th for people who pay weekly. Regular tuition is due for the week of January 1st – January 5th.

For those of you who need our tax ID number for filing your 2007 tax return, it is:

FID#: 02 0509576

All of us at ESCC wish you a very happy holiday season and many blessings for the New Year.

Sincerely,

Kathy & Joan
